

ACTING COACH CONTRACT
MR. JOHNATHAN PONTARELLI
johnathan_pontarelli@ipsd.org

Are you a young actor that needs help auditioning? Already cast in a show, but want extra practice with a qualified director? Mr. Pontarelli is a director and actor that can aid in honing the craft of a performer.

Goals of Coaching:

- To promote and support active and independent learning
- To develop a positive approach to acting and auditions
- To aid in developing a higher student competence or confidence
- To create an encouraging environment where learning takes place at the student's pace

Student Responsibilities:

- Check your voicemail and/or email for messages from your coach
- Attend coaching session on a regular and consistent basis
- Attend all scheduled sessions (see attendance policy). Arrive on time or early, and bring all support materials (books, notes, worksheets, pen/pencil, etc.)
- Prepare for each session by reviewing the material you would like covered. Bring an agenda or list of questions to share with your tutor
- Do not bring friends to sessions
- Participate actively—ask questions, complete practice activities, etc.
- Know your tutor's name and contact information; contact their tutor via phone or email at least 24 hours in advance in the case of a scheduling conflict

Attendance & Payment Policy:

- Unless there is an emergency, you must contact tutor with at least 24 hours notice to cancel or reschedule an appointment
- After 3 cancellations/no shows, coach is subject to drop student from sessions.
- Payment rate is $50 an hour
- Students can pay in full for one month ahead of session
 - Example: 1 session once a week for 1 month = $200 ($50 x 4 sessions)

I certify that I have read and discussed the information contained in this contract, and I agree to the terms and conditions listed in it. I agree to work cooperatively with my acting coach to fulfill my responsibilities and work toward my success. I understand that my coaching may be suspended or revoked for failure to abide by the requirements outlined above.
